

From the Desk of the Literacy Support Teacher....

Block 1 Reflections

Students and staff were asked for feedback after our first round of Intervention Programming. Here are the highlights of what was shared.

Student Interest Survey Three things I liked best about Intervention:

"learning with my friends" "computer time" "books"
"Dr.Suess" "writing poems" "crafts" "making a scrap book"
"fun activities" "Literacy games" "art" "friends"
"interesting" "having it everyday" "working together"
"different teacher" "learning about trees" "working with different people"
"fun book reading computer grammar writing" "quietness" "creating games and playing them"
"picking characters" "acting" "choice of plays" "doing Geocaching"
"learning about G.P.S." "learning on the computer" "hands-on" "story telling" "learning about words" "word games"

Staff Feedback Survey Positives about Intervention:

"students were eager and involved" "high student interest"
"awesome for the kids" "students have enjoyed the small group attention"
"Building of positive relationships both student-teacher and peer-student"
"feels good to see progress" "students were focused" "well organized" "smooth transitions"
"students are excited to see growth in achievement" "small group setting works well"
"I enjoy working with new students" "great for targeting individual needs and providing enriching activities at the same time"
